Foreword

It is a great pleasure to write the Foreword to the index entitled An Alphabetical Index of Bengali Manuscripts Part-III published by the Manuscript Section of Dhaka University Library. Dhaka University Library houses a large collection of ancient and medieval manuscripts. The current volume is the part of Abdul Karim Sahity Bisarad’s Collection initially preserved by Dr. Ahmad Sarif. Professor Dr. Ahmad Sharif’s family handed over the manuscripts to Dhaka University Library. The manuscript section of Dhaka University Library has taken necessary measures for the preservation of these manuscripts. An initiative has also been taken to publish alphabetical index of manuscripts for the convenience of students, teachers and researchers. In identifying the manuscripts, the following items have been recorded in the Index: Title, Author, Subject, Folio, Date and copywriter, Date of Copy, Complete/Incomplete and Call Number.

The Manuscripts indexed in this volume cover different fields such as Kāvyā, Upākhyāna, Ayurveda, Patra, Tantra, Mantra, etc.

The volume was prepared by the concerned officials in the Manuscript Section. I am proud to note that they have done the job professionally and passionately. They all deserve appreciation for their hard and sincere work leading to this publication.

I sincerely hope that An Alphabetical Index of Bengali Manuscripts Part-III will be of immense value to the researchers and scholars in home and abroad.

Preface

Indeed it is my proud privilege to write few words on the "Alphabetical Index of Bengali Manuscripts" collected by celebrated researcher of medieval literature Abdul Karim Sahityabisharad. The index contains 993 manuscripts, all these manuscripts were the partial collection of Sahitya Bisharad which he collected solely during his lifetime from the different places of greater Chittagong district. Among his collection some of the manuscripts were written by the Hindu litterateurs and most of his collections were written by the Muslim litterateurs.

Abdul Karim Sahityabisharad’s remarkable contribution was that he was a sole person who by his own initiative and expense, purchased, collected and discovered all these hand written manuscripts. In this connection Dr.Syed Sajjad Hussain, former Professor of English and Vice Chancellor of the Dhaka University mentioned in his book “Descriptive Catalogue of Bengali Manuscripts” that “Abdul Karim Sahitya Bisharad used to know well of medieval Bengali literature than any other scholar of greater Bengal”.

Sahityabisharad wrote around 427 essays on the different issues on Bangla literature and edited, compiled and written altogether 16 books, out of which 9 books were published by the Bangeeyo Sahitya Porishad, Kolkata. It may be mentioned here that, during 1903 and 1918, in the different literary meetings and in writings, Sahityabisharad was the sole spokesman among the Bengalee Muslims, who demanded that Bangla should be the national language of the greater Bengal. However, in 1950 Sahityabisharad donated about 586 manuscripts to the library of the Dhaka University and also in 1953 around 1500 handwritten manuscripts were donated to the Varendra Research Museum of Rajshahi for preservation and publication purpose. After his death in 1953 rest of his ‘golden mine’ was inherited by his nephew Dr. Ahmed Sharif, another celebrated scholar of Bangla Literature and Professor of Bangla department of Dhaka University. Dr. Ahmed Sharif himself edited and published 45 handwritten manuscripts from the Bangla Academy in between 1950 to 1970.

Later on after his death in 1999 his son Mahmud Karim donated the rest 407 manuscripts to the library of Dhaka University for better preservation and utilization by the local and foreign researchers. It should be stated here that Syeda Farida Parvin, Librarian (P&D) and her colleagues of the Dhaka University Library took special care to preserve and publish the index of Bangla manuscripts for better utilization by researchers. On behalf of Abdul Karim Sahityabisharad and Dr. Ahmed Sharif’s family very sincerely express my gratitude to them. In this connection, I take this opportunity to express my thanks to Advocate Zahed Karim, who took special care of these manuscripts before handing over to the Library representatives of Dhaka University.

Introduction

Among the all libraries in Bangladesh, the library of Dhaka University has got a largest collection of manuscripts and which is considered to be a significant collection in South Asian countries. At present thirty thousand manuscripts are collected and preserved in the Dhaka University Library.

These valuable and rare manuscripts consist of important disciplines of knowledge like mediaeval literature, history, religious, culture, heritage, aurvedik, science, anthropology and social evidences. There are some valuable manuscripts that Dhaka University Library possesses may also be classified as the world heritage. Majority of these manuscripts were written or copied from the beginning of fifteenth century to the early nineteenth century. These manuscripts were written on palm leaves, barks, banana leaves, tulat kagas and hand made paper etc.

These manuscripts have been collected by Dhaka University in many ways. From the inception of the Dhaka University, an impressive effort has been made to collect various kinds of manuscripts. Even at present, this effort is also continuing to collect manuscripts and it will be continued in the coming days also. Some manuscripts purchased form individuals and some manuscripts received form donors. Among the total collected manuscripts by Dhaka University Library “Abdul Karim Shahityabisharad’s collection” is the largest and most precious. More than one thousand manuscripts accumulated by Abdul Karim Shahityabisharad which he generously donated to the Dhaka University library.

In 1952, Abdul Karim Shahityabisharad himself donated 585 manuscripts to Dhaka University Library. He also created the index of these manuscripts but he could not publish. Later on Dr. Ahmad Sharif professor of Bangla Department, Dhaka University compiled descriptive catalogue of these manuscripts which was published with the title ‘Puthi Porichiti’ from the department of Bangla and Sanskrit of Dhaka University in 1958. Since then, this ‘Puthi Porichiti’ has been pioneering in the field of research on mediaeval literature. In 1960, Professor Sajjad Hossain, department of English, Dhaka University translated this ‘Puthi Parichiti’ in English version, funded by the Asiatic Society of Bangladesh.

Later on Mr. Mahmud Karim, Dr. Nehal Karim, a Professor in the department of Sociology and advocate Zahed Karim sons of Dr. Ahmed Sharif, donated 407 manuscripts to the Dhaka University library in 2007. These manuscripts are also collected by Abdul Karim Shahityabisharad. After his death these were preserved by Dr. Ahmad Sharif. These 407 manuscripts are now included in this ‘Alphabetical index’. This index is titled as, ‘An Alphabetical Index of Bangla Manuscripts Part-III’ (Abdul Karim Shahityabisharad Collection) which is accomplished by executives and other officials of the manuscript section. They have done an excellent job and a plan has already chalked out that in future more initiative will be taken to publish this index as a descriptive form.
Before concluding this Introduction of Index, some remarks are in order on the life of Abdul Karim Sahityabisharad. He spent his entire life mostly in exploration, collection, preservation and research of literature, culture and heritage of mediaeval period. The collection of Sahityabisharad is mostly the literary works by Muslim poets and authors of mediaeval age. Dr. Muhammad Shahidullah and Dr. Muhammad Enamul Haque wrote books on the history of literature titled as ‘Moddho Juger Bangla Sahityer Katha’ and ‘Muslim Bangla Sahitya’ respectively which were based on this collection of Sahityabisharad. There are many PhD scholars and researchers who worked on this collection and also obtained their PhD degree writing thesis on this.

The immense part of the literary works accomplished by Muslim poets has been lost over the years due to the lack of proper effort to collect them. A vast portion of the endangered manuscripts has been saved through the measures taken by Sahityabisharad to collect and preserve them. The manuscripts accomplished by Syed Sultan, Shah Muhammad Sagir, Daulat Ujir Bahram Khan, Joyeuddin, Sheikh Paran, Sheikh Faijullah, Sheikh Muttalib and Aliraja have been retrieved among the collection of Sahityabisharad. Eminent educationist and researcher Dr. Ahmad Sharif wrote in the Foreword of his book ‘Puthi Parichiti’—“without any doubt it can be said that, if all the manuscripts of Bangladesh could have been collected, it would be equipotential in adequacy and diversity to the literary works of entire literature world of any prosperous country or nation in mediaeval age.”

I sincerely hope that this index will be of tremendous help to scholars, teachers and students who are working on the field of medieval literature history and culture. I am also confident that this index will also be an effective guide to the researchers and the readers in home and abroad.
